1. From 19 to 24 January 1953, the Infanterie Kaserne east of Friedens Strasse, Zeitz, was occupied by an estimated 2,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets mostly with artillery insignia and, about 25 percent, with AT and motor transport insignia. Drill with and without carbines and formation drill was observed in the installation. A target range, about 150 meters long, was being prepared in the barracks area. Reports of AT guns were heard from there. At 4 p.m. on 22 January, rocket launchers [REDACTED]
